[NEW] 13. In addition to any other general or common expenses of the Association, the Board shall have the authority to and may enter into agreements for and authorize payment of the cost of a master antenna television system, duly franchised cable television service or any other similar media or multi-media service or system obtained pursuant to a bulk rate contract. The expense of such bulk contract shall be shared by all unit owners, except those meeting express exemption criterion under Florida Statutes, and the cost therefore shall be budgeted, assessed and paid as a common expense of the Association, and enforceable as such. Any provision of the Declaration which expressly or impliedly conflicts with the provisions of this amendment shall be deemed amended to be in conformity herewith.

THE FOREGOING RESOLUTION, was passed pursuant to Florida Statute 617.0701 and consent of two-thirds (2/3) of the entire membership of Westhampton Club Condominium.
