

March 27, 2012

Promulgated rule by the Board regarding rental properties:

Only one person's name may be listed on any rental agreement. Homes may not be rented to more than one family at a time. The named leasee shall not be permitted to sub-lease the home. The named leasee must be residing in the home when overnight guests are staying in the home. This includes immediate family members, such as adult or minor children or other relatives, as well as adult or minor non-relatives.